Welcome to our purist hotel

There is a story behind every cobblestone and every window of Palacio Can Marqués, a residence for curious, modern, luxury-loving travellers and sailors, with allusions to its adventurous roots. We invite our guests to become part of our family, enjoying a stay in a genuine Majorcan palace that stands out for its elegant heritage and warm hospitality that will take them on a journey over 300 years back in time.

The Palace is considered a “purist hotel”, where the original features are kept intact and where antique furniture coexists with state of the art technology, providing an undeniable air of comfort and glamour to provide a space like no other.

The Palace

It was sailing what brought Kim Schindelbauer, owner of Palacio Can Marqués, to Palma more than 20 years ago. Looking to relocate his 33-metre Baltic racing yacht WinWin to the calmer waters of Majorca, and not interested at all in real estate, he bought the old-looking palace off the Marqués family and made it his home, being only the third owner in 300 years.

Partner to the owner and renowned interior designer Aline Matsika, fell in love with the project of converting this unique building into the elegant and personal hotel it is today, bringing to life the already inspiring canvas that was there and maintaining many of the original features. She imagined it as a private home, with Kim as a host welcoming friends, making every room different and full of their own personality.

After 7 years of curated restoration, the hotel finally opened its doors in 2019, welcoming guests to experience life in a Palace.

Location

Located in the heart and fascinating old town of Palma de Mallorca, La Lonja, next to the sea, where the most important historical transactions of its time took place. The neighborhood was frequented by sailors and merchants from all over the Mediterranean Sea.

Its superb location is within walking distance to the magnificent 14th century Catedral - the most emblematic building in Majorca, it's a must visit! Also, the Palace is close to the famous marinas along the Paseo Marítimo, such as the Real Club Nautico de Palma, STP and Club de Mar, where some of the most impressive yachts sleeps.

Art, sea history, gastronomy and elegant boutiques await; just step outside, and you will have Palma de Mallorca at your feet.
